

The Dog

There once was a dog,
he was as big as a tree, he lived in a log
and set crooks free, He loved to eat schools,
the kids were so glad,
when he replaced them with pools, the teachers were mad,
The kids had fun
in the pools,
when he let them chew gum, the kids thought he was cool.
Too bad this was not real,
it was just a thought, they started to steal when they remembered what they have been taught. |
